FOLKE BERNADOTTE ACADEMY

6th International Lessons Learned Conference Stockholm, Sweden, 21 – 24 June 2010

For Practitioners by Practitioners Sharing Experience – Building Knowledge

The 6th International Lessons Learned Conference (ILLC 2010) will take place in Stockholm, Sweden, 21 – 24 June 2010, at the Military Academy Karlberg. Hosts for the conference are the Swedish Armed Forces and the Folke Bernadotte Academy.

The ILLC 2010 will offer practitioners and experts from military, police and civilian organisations in the field of Lessons Learned and Knowledge Management an opportunity to discuss practical lessons and methods on four important aspects relating to complex peace operations: the comprehensive approach, leadership, protection of civilians, as well as security of personnel when working in international operations (missions).

The aim of the ILLC 2010 is to share lessons and best practices from a variety of military, police, civilian and civil-military missions/operations worldwide; to share know-how about methods, processes and tools used to identify and apply lessons learned and best practices; and to create networking opportunities for lessons learned/best practices professionals from individual countries and international organizations.

Post – Conference Discussion

There will be an optional Post-Conference Discussion on Thursday 24 June in the afternoon after the official closing session. The intention is to discuss the future of the ILLC based on experiences and lessons from previous conferences (ILLC: s).
