

Swedish Armed Forces

Director General Peter Sandwall

Date and place of Birth: 25 July, 1963 in Borås

Family: Married to Pernilla, two children

Address: Swedish Armed Forces Headquarters, SE-107 85 STOCKHOLM, SWEDEN

Present Assignment

Director General of the Swedish Armed Forces

Previous Work Experience

2010-2012	Ministry of Finance, Director. Head of a Division for the State Budget
2006-2010	Ministry of Finance, Director. Head of the Division for the EU Budget
2002-2003	Ministry of Finance, Director. Head of the Ministry's EMU Team
1998-2002	Ministry of Finance, Director. Head of the Division for EMU and EU Structural Policies
1992-1996	Ministry of Finance, Head of Section. Desk officer for the International Monetary Fund, IMF and for the Group of Ten, G10
1985-1986	Royal Swedish Navy Reserve, Lieutenant (N). Commanding officer of a minesweeper

Education and Research

1996-1998	University of Uppsala. PhD Programme in Economics (not concluded)
1987-1991	University of Uppsala. Master of Science in Business Administration and Economics, extra courses, i.a. in Political Science.
1987	Université de Paris – Sorbonne. French language studies
1983-1985	Royal Swedish Navy. Training as part of compulsory military service and as officer in the reserve. Awarded the Sword of Honour as first in class.

Miscellaneous

2010-2012	Member of the Board, Swedish Export Credit Agency, EKN
2010-2012	Member of Working group to improve efficiency of Government Offices
2006-2010	Member of the "Noordwijk Group" on EU budget policies
2004-2006	Optimized Portfolio Management, Chairman of the Board
2002-2003	Member of the EU's Economic Policy Committee, EPC
2002-2003	Ministry of Finance's Mentor Programme (as mentor)
2000-2003	Chairman of the Expert's Group for Euro Preparations
1992-1995	Participation in various G10 studies, i.a. on Capital Flows and on Saving, Investments and Real Interest Rates

Languages

English (fluently), French (basic)

CV valid from October 2012