9. Student assessment

Each student must successfully achieve all Performance Objectives (POs) to pass the course. The students will receive the grade “Successfully completed” or “Participated” pending individual performance. A course certificate will be given at the end of the course. Both formative and summative assessments will be used throughout the course.

10. Language proficiency

Students must be proficient in English in accordance with NATO standardization agreement (STANAG) 6001<sup>1</sup>:

Listening Good (3), Speaking Fair (2), Reading Good (3), Writing Fair (2).

Language testing is a national responsibility. The course staff will provide no additional training or translation.

11. Computer skills

A level of handling computers and online conferences and student portal is required to complete the course. This includes but is not limited to MS Teams video conference tool and use of web browser to access online the Learning Management System Portal. NCGM training and information management relies heavily on our computer information system and online platforms.

12. Security classification

The content of this course is: UNCLASSIFIED

13. SWEDINT-NCGM policy on personal data

In order to get a seat on a course at NCGM the applicant will be asked to provide personal data. To be able to process course applications, NCGM will handle the personal particulars stated in the application form, and the information will only be used for course related administration.

14. Administration

a. Student Application

Student applications are to be sent to SWEDINT-NCGM NLT 29 NOV 2024.

The application form / registration form will be found at:

<https://www.forsvarsmakten.se/en/swedint/nordic-centre-for-gender-in-military-operations/courses-at-ncgm-and-how-to-apply2>

In the application form, the applicant is to report a national point of contact (POC). The POC should be the Commander/ Branch head that approves the application through signing.

The application form has to be sent to SWEDINT-NCGM via e-mail, mail or fax.

Late course applications will only be considered if seats are available.

b. Important information to national administrators etc:

It is important that this invitation reaches the applicant intended to apply for a seat on the course since it contains information that the applicant needs in the application process.

c. Internet access before the course

Prior to joining the course at NCGM, students will need access to internet in order to retrieve information that NCGM provides on the web page before the online course starts, such as course curriculum, application form, etc. For access to course documents and reference material once admitted to the course, the online educational platform Its Learning will be used.

Sessions in virtual classrooms will be conducted through MS Teams.

NCGM will provide LMS accounts for the applicants admitted to the course.

d. Student selection

If a nation has more applicants than seats available on the course, it is up to the applying nation to prioritize among its applicants. If this is not done, NCGM will select the applicants it deems most qualified.

If the nation is interested in registering for the course but does not initially have a name of the participant in question a preliminary seat at the course can be requested in order to get the selection process started.

e. Code of Conduct

NCGM places high demands on personal behavior and respect for others regardless of religion, ethnicity, disability, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation or age. The NCGM Code of Conduct is available for all on Its Learning.

In case of violations of the code of conduct, NCGM reserves the right to dismiss the student from the course with immediate effect.

f. Course fees

The course is free of charge.

g. Subsidies

Not applicable on online courses.

h. Dress code

Civilian casual/daily uniform.

b. Application procedure

Student applications should be sent to SWEDINT-NCGM NLT 29 NOV 2024.

The application form can be found on the Internet at:

<https://www.forsvarsmakten.se/en/swedint/nordic-centre-for-gender-in-military-operations/courses-at-ncgm-and-how-to-apply2/>.

Click on Courses at NCGM and How to apply and find the Course Application Form under Related Documents. When the application form has been filled in, it is to be sent to swedint@mil.se. (SWEDINT handles the administration of applications for both SWEDINT and NCGM courses).

The course admin office will confirm receipt of the application. This does not mean that the student has been admitted to the course, it only confirms that the admin office has received the application.

The POC/applicant will be notified at the latest 4 weeks before the course starts whether or not the applicant is admitted to the course. If admitted to the course, the POC/applicant will receive a Letter of Admission, indicating further details of the course, and information about how to access the online platform(s) used for the course.
